Birthday Surprise.

Saturday night, March 2, about 15 stage hands and ushers led by Fred Barnes, met at Stone's drug store and marched down street to the home of Eugene Libby and gave him a pleasant surprise on his birthday.

Upon entering Joshua Yeaton, who was with Mr. Libby says, "Well I hain't afraid of the boys, but I guess I had better be going." Harold Anderson and Edward Burnell sang many choice and up to-date selections. Mr. Anderson is a piano player of no mean ability as he proved. Mr. Burnell has a very fine voice.

They all sat down to a large supper and Mr. Burnell did away with five plates of stew. We ain't saying anything but, "where did you put it all, Ned?"

Mr. Libby is a very accomodating man and is well liked by everyone. He helps the boys out of a great many jobs in the Opera House they would have to do by doing them for them.

The boys presented him with a fountain pen. Albert C. Fogg made the presentation speech. At a late hour the party wishing him many happy returns of the day departed for their homes.

The Leap Year Party.

During the past month unique invitations were distributed to about four hundred ladies of the village to attend the leap year ball with gentlemen. Thursday evening was the date set and one of the pleasantest dancing parties of the winter took place with excellent music furnished by Stearns' Orchestra.

The leap year ball was given under the direction of "the matrons of the Universalist church" and included Mrs. E. F. Smith, Mrs. M. W. Sampson, Mrs. L. J. Brooks, Mrs. V. W. Hills, Mrs. G. I. Cummings, Mrs. C. F. Ridlon, Mrs. F. E. Drake, Mrs. G. W. Winslow, Mrs. Geo. Curtis, Mrs. George Cullinan, Mrs. W. F. Jones, Mrs. B. F. Bradbury.

There was a very large attendance and nearly 100 couples entered on the grand march which was led by Mrs. E. F. Smith and husband, followed by the matrons and their husbands. Every one entered into having a good time, and dance followed dance in merry rythm until an early hour of the morning.

At intermission the ladies escorted their partners to Concert Hall, where a most excellent turkey supper was served. The menu consisted of roast turkey, mashed potato, squash, cranberry sauce, pickles, jelly, salads, cream, apple and custard pies, doughnuts, cake, coffee and fruit. The supper was in charge of the ladies' circle under the direction of Fred Cummings.

The stage was arranged with tables and those who desired played cards.

About $95 was netted from this event for the benefit of the Universalist church.

Hosea Abbott has been confined to the house with a severe cold.

Mrs. George Bruce and Gertrude Bruce, who have been visiting Rev. R. J. Bruce, went to Boston, Tuesday, where they will spend several days before returning to their home in Albany, N. Y.

Mrs. Alma Harriman leaves Saturday for Boston to get her spring goods and to visit dressmaking parlors. Mrs. William Haskell is to take charge of her dressmaking rooms during her absence.

Abigial Whitman Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution spent a delightful evening with Mrs. Emma Sargent at her pleasant home on Cottage Street, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Sargent was ill the previous meeting and was unable to entertain the Daughters and Mrs. Gertrude Libby changed evenings with her. Flag Queries was taken up in a paper on the United States flag with questions and answers by Mrs. Laura Sanborn, and was given the closest attention. This was followed by a flag study by the members. George A. Wilkins of South Berwick lent his collection of flags and collected studies on flags and this gave a chance to compare the flags of other nations from the year 400 down through the ages. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess of maraschino ice cream, angle cake, fancy crackers and ginger ale.

The Village Postoffice.

The ladies' circle of the Congregational church held their March supper and entertainment at the Grange hall, Wednesday evening, which proved to be the most sucessful circle of the season. Each previous one netted good sums, but from this one was realized over $80.

Supper was served from six to eight in the dining hall, and the ladies were kept busy during the two hours, serving the large crowd which came from far and near, including North Norway, Norway Lake, South Paris and Oxford. The supper was one of the baked bean variety, with all kinds of salads and pastry.

After the supper the drama entitled "The Village Postoffice," was presented under the direction of Nellie Andrews, Mrs. H. L. Bartlett and Vivian Dingley. The scene of the drama was in an old fashioned country store and postoffice, where the different dwellers of the community came to do their buying.

Among these were found the postmaster, L. I. Gilbert, a fat, good natured, jolly old fellow, slightly inquisitive but right on his job at the store. His wife, Edith S. Bartlett, was the best at making sales, sticking to her prices, and very anxious to know all the news that came through the mail at the office. Their daughter Elizabeth, Gladys Keene, was home fresh from college with extremely elevated ideas after giving a lecture on the "Essentials of the Essentially Essential." Joseph, their son, Homer Luck, was good at chopping three sticks of wood for the fire, and a devoted lovemaker to Susan Smith, Mildred Holmes, who denounces her love for the rickety old, stuttering Irishman, Walter Chandler, with locks of fiery red, who tried to talk and sing all at once and wound up with a whistle.

The story tellers were there in the persons of F. H. Noyes, G. W. Holmes and E. E. Andrews. Noyes was a veteran soldier with a long grey board and a kink in the knees, so much so the boys thought he might warp if he stayed near the stove. Holmes was the biggest story teller, telling of reaping a harvest of corn from the roots of the corn stalks. Andrews was the one who took the bonquets from a number of his friends in the audience, and he was a picture of gracefulness, adorned with flowers and dressed in a skin tight suit, a soft hat and gorgeous colored thibet.

The horse trader was there in the person of L. M. Longley, red whiskers and all. His experience with new spring suspenders which doubled him up, was not as he liked so he stuck to the old 'uns, His wife, Lizy Ann, Mrs. Fannie Holmes, came with him. She was afflicted with entertaining her city cousins, but she said she'd fix 'em; would serve em skim milk, eggs the old hen sat on for two weeks, biscuits without soda, and some of her fermented raspberry sauce,— that would do it.

Betsy, Nellie Andrews, the town gossip and dressmaker, says she don't sew for Mrs. Hermon Horne any more, as the kids sauced her. She also said she knew a young lady named Parker was to be married, for she was making a wedding dress for her. She said she attended the wedding of Francis Swett and Geneva Barker the other day. The wedding dress was the one her mother wore. It didn't fit, for her mother weighed 100 pounds more than she. There were several calamaties among the courtships of the clerks at Smiley's, so she says. The parson, Philip Stone, read a portion of his resignation, avowing he couldn't live on $300 and donation parties, and was going "to the penitentiary to prepare a place for you."

Mary Ann, Mrs. Minnie Bangs, little deaf; Mrs. Depew, Mrs. Alice Stearns; Martha, Mrs. Nellie Shepard; Katie, Clara Shepard; Mary, Mildred Noyes; and Ann, Marion Bangs; all came to the office for mail, buying a few articles and spinning a yarn or telling a little news to the "old men" who were around the stove.

Cyrus, Dr. Harry Jones, was a pretty good story teller. He don't like sweaters though, he being so large and the sweater so small made it fit most too quick, and he almost lost his head getting out.

Among the others who called was Pat, Walter Chandler, a devoted son of his old home in Dublin; Mandy, Vivian Dingley, a strong woman's rights lady, delivered an oration on her subject and wound up by taking her husband (E. E. Andrews) by the ear and starting him, flower and all for home. Delilia, Mrs. Gertrude Hosmer, believed in making beautiful wedding gifts that cost just 10 cents. Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Emma Jones, and son Claudius, Arthur Bartlett, were fresh from the height of society in a big city.

Nora, Helen Cole, the servant, came in her hoopskirt as her mistress wanted her to spread herself all she could. She affirmed her mistress was awful sick, got a terrible disease, the doctor called it "convalescent," guessed it wasn't very dangerous, cost only 50c for the call. A very stylish gentleman called Bigelow, Charles Evirs, called to sell books, life insurance, etc., but couldn't make a hit. Bobby, Francis Andrews, and Johnnie, Albert Bartlett, were good composition writers, Johnnie explaining woman's rights, while Bobby made his story up by the aid of "Fido." Jennie, Doris Shepard, was determined to get some mail for some of her family long after the repeated reply of the postmaster, "No mail for any of the Browns, big, little, great or small."

F. H. Noyes had the last words and said, "You can fool the American people some of the time and I guess we have succeeded to-night."

The drama was finely presented and all the famous local actors did themselves credit.

There were 500 that partook of the supper and 550 at the entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Drake are in Massachusetts.

Mrs. C. W. Chick underwent a very serious operation at Dr. King's hospital at Portland, Monday. She is doing as well as can be expected.

The answer to the enigma printed in the ADVERTISER dated Feb. 2 is:

3. Scott S. Pottle, Norway Lake.
4. Andrew Scoggin, Mechanic Falls.

The names of all who send the correct answer to this week's enigma before March 20th, will appear in the ADVERTISER of April, 5th. Now don't mark down trick for "to defraud," fade for "to wither," simmer for "to boil," sport for "merriment," cure for "to make sound," nor quick for "speedy."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Your Money Back if You are not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate, and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefor tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, ond the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Norway only at our store—The Rexall Store. F. P. Stone, 143 Main Street, Norway, Me. 10

SWIFT'S LOWELL ANIMAL FERTILIZERS ARE PROFITABLE

They have accomplished more than others because they meet the peculiar demands of the New England soil. They are rich in organic animal matter, elements lacking in run down land, and supply them in needed quantities.

Select the brand best suited to your needs and you'll see why Swift's Fertilizers are profitable—they produce results.

"I planted 4 acres of potatoes this last Spring, using 1,400 lbs. of your Special Potato Fertilizer to the acre, and harvested 950 bushels of first class tubers and haven't sold a bushel less than $1.00 per bushel. I consider it one of the best crops to grow when you can get that yield, and I have done that if not better for the past four years, or rather since I began using Swift's Animal Fertilizers. I shall order 5 or 6 tons through your agent this coming season."—LUMAN E. METCALF, Greenville, N.H.

"The past season I had a field of 12 acres of fine Ensilage Corn. The crop averaged 16 ft. high and was well eared."

Bear Mountain Grange.

Bear Mountain Grange had a good old fashioned up-to-date meeting, recently. The new, lately installed board of officers were in their chairs, some of them wearing their official dignities for the first time, but every utterance and motion was according to the ritual from Worthy Master through the whole roll, showing evidence of study and familiar acquaintance with the prescribed forms of the order. Any self-respecting and well instructed patron takes a pardonable pride in seeing the offices of his Grange occupied by bright, ambitious persons who realize the value of accurate and graceful performance of official duties. That is why our Grange is happy this year in maintaining its record for conspicuous efficie cy of those to whom is committed the important interests of its business and social features of administration. One application for membership was received and candidate elected.

Voted to donate five dollars to the fund for erection of a Grange Cottage for Good Will Farm at Hinckley, Me, to replace the building recently destroyed by fire.

After a brief recess, Worthy Lecturer introduced a pleasing program in which Sister Lizzie Hall read a select and amusing story.

Brother Fernald read from the Farm and Fireside, a letter written by an American gentleman in Germany, describing the remarkable advantages enjoyed by the people of that country in possession of the Parcels Post, which they have had for more than 100 years, and in a greatly improved and extended system since 1873. "It is the very thing," says our traveler, "that we have been beseeching Congress to establish, and the thing that the Grange and other farm organizations in the United States have been endorsing in their resolutions for years."

Brother Sias gave a fine reading of "The Hemale of the Species," by Marion C. Smith in the Independent, with no apology to Rudyard Kipling.

The principal feature of the program was the discussion of the question:—Resolved that the labor and cares of the farmer's wife are more severe and wearing than those of the farmer. The debate was opened by Sister Riggs, who argued that although the farmer's work demanded a greater exercise of physical strength in many cases, yet the labor and necessary cares of the farmer's wife, and the never ceasing cares for her house and its furnishings, her responsibility for the cooking and prompt service of meals for her family, and for the health, clothing and home education of her children, quite exceed all the domestic labor and cares of the farmer. The argument of Mrs. Riggs was endorsed by excellent and apt illustrations of every day facts. Sister Hapgood chose to espouse the cause of the lord of the soil, who, she thought, represents a much wider field of responsibility in the general economy of farm management than the lady of the manor, no matter how many children they may have to provide for. The importance of watching for the proper times and seasons for execution of outdoor farm work, for cultivation of the land and spring seeding, and for all farm operations during the season, including the harvesting at the proper time. These and other considerations were adduced to show a good argument in favor of the farmer as the partner in management of the farm who was the most strenuous worker and care taker.

Bro. W. K. Hamlin, in humorous vein, said he had many times in his life wished he was a woman; even when he was a ten year old boy and had to yoke the ox team and go out breaking roads on a cold winter day. It was then he wished. "Oh, if I was a woman, I would be in the house right in the chimney corner and not out in the deep drifts, wallowing and punching old Star and Bright." He said he had never outgrown his partiality for the life and easy seclusion of the house wife who is, in his views to be envied for her exceptional condition of exemption from the discomforts of blazing suns and blizzards. Sister Hamlim, who knows from many experiences of a farmer's wife the reality of a wife's and mother's responsibilities, presented her views in the following paper, which in her absence was read by Sister Muller.

"It is very hard to get a pair of oxen or horses that will at all times walk and work shoulder to shoulder, and equally as hard to match up a man and woman so that each one at all times will take a like amount of care and responsibility. I think if they raise up a family it is almost always the woman that has the most care.

"But, right here, let me say, it all depends on the sort of man you live with. Is he selfish? Does he scold the children, or comfort them in their many little troubles? Does he howl and scold in the night when they cry, or does he hop right up and brew them some catnip, or in some way quiet their troubles? Or has the woman to get up with the child and take it to the farthest corner of the house for fear of disturbing her husband? Does he take equal responsibility with her in training those children? Does he see that she has plenty of wood in the box and water in the pail, and is provided with tools and materials to do her work with?

"What does he do when he comes in to his dinner and for many reasons it is a little late,—turn and go out mad and make her wait a half hour for him? Or does he pick up the baby and please him, or peel the potatoes or in other ways help out? Does he do all the marketing, going to the postoffice, or does he sometimes stay at home and look after the children and let her go?

"Will he spend all of his evenings at Freeman's (Grange store) and leave her at home to scrub, cook and do a thousand and one things? Or will he occasionally change work with her and let her go to Freeman's or to Mrs. Young's (postoffice) for the evening? It all depends upon what sort of a man you live with. They told me I was to prove that the women had the most care. I will leave that for you to decide."

Sister Muller volunteered to express a few of her original ideas on the subject of the housewife's cares and incidental vexations. She says a great part of woman's cares and housework are caused by the thoughtless behavior of the men of the house in leaning their belongings, or throwing them down carelessly instead of putting them out of the way in some proper place. She instanced the heedlessness of men folks in a number of apt expressions and expressed herself on the character of the debate, with import of words and with grace of gesture that marked her as a born orator. The vote on the merits of the debate was a tie.

DRUNKENNESS IS A DISEASE AND WE CAN CURE IT.

Most men who drink to excess do so because they cannot help it; they are controlled by a craving which is practically irresistable. This is a diseased condition, but can be and is promptly relieved.

How? by taking the KEELEY TREATMENT AT A KEELEY INSTITUTE, the only place to get it and the only treatment which cures alcoholic and drug inebriety.

The "KEELEY CURE" removes the craving for liquor and drugs and leaves the man master of himself. The system is rational, it embodies no suffering or sickness, no absurd or preposterous claims are made; the hypodermic method of treatment is constantly used, which, according to all reputable physicians, is safe, painless, prompt, and efficient.

The "KEELEY CURE" does not nauseate a patient and no attempt is made to cure inebriates by creating a disgust for liquor. A treatment depending upon nauseants or emetics for a cure can never be anything but a failure because the patient will soon learn that it is not the liquor which nauseates him but that he has been made the victim of a trick; the diseased condition not being relieved the patient naturally goes back to liquor.

The diseased conditions produced by from five to thirty years constant or periodical use of liquor cannot be cured by a few days of nausea and emesis. Such methods are irrational, brutal, and, sometimes permantly injurious.

The "KEELEY CURE" has restored over 400,000 men and women who were addicted to liquors and drugs; it is the pioneer in this work and has many imitators, but no rivals or competitors as far as RESULTS are concerned.

If you have need to take treatment for the liquor or drug addiction, investigate the "KEELEY CURE;" look for something that is substantial and has stood the test of time. Where health and happiness are concerned you cannot afford to experiment or take chances, and for that reason you cannot to take any treatment but the "KEELEY."

All correspondence is strictly confidential and all inquiries answered in plain sealed envelopes.

The Musical Bouquet presented by the Blossom family at the New Church Hall was a great success. The cast of characters was as follows:

THE KEELEY INSTITUTE

Oldest and Best Known Institution in Maine for Treatment of Liquor and Drug Addictions. Dr. T. B. Morrissey, Manager and Physician-in-Charge.

What is known as the "Keeley Cure" for Liquor and Drug using was discovered by Dr. Leslie E. Keeley of Dwight, Illinois, more than a third of a century ago. Since that time the Keeley Treatment for Liquor, Opium and Nervous Diseases has been constantly and successfully administered through the medium of Keeley Institutes, one or more of which are located in nearly every State of the Union, Canada, England and Mexico.

The Keeley Treatment was established in Maine over twenty years ago; its success was immediate and continuous and its permanency and stability as an institution has been fully established. The Maine Keeley Institute has, for the past fifteen years, been located at 151 Congress St., Portland, Maine, on Munjoy Hill, in a building where modern conveniences and accommodations tend to increase the comfort of the patients.

This Institute—the only one in the State—is the oldest and best known institution in Maine for the treatment of liquor and drug addictions. Since its establishment a small army of men and women have been cured here and restored to health, family and earning capacity. For many years the Institute was under the management of Mr. J. L. Lovett, who retired in July, 1911, having disposed of his interests to Dr. T. B. Morrissey, who has since been Manager and Physician-in-Charge. For a number of years previous to August, 1906, Dr. Morrissey was the Physician-in-Charge at this Institute and is personally acquainted with a large number of the former patients of this Institute.

Dr. Morrissey is a graduate of Rush Medical college, of the University of Chicago, and is a licensed practitioner in the State of Maine. His entire time for more than twelve years has been devoted to the study and treatment of liquor and drug addictions. During this time he has been connected with some of the largest Keeley Institutes in the United States and Canada, and has been a member of the medical staff at the parent Institute, Dwight, Illinois. For four years previous to his coming to Portland, he was in charge of the Keeley Institute at Salt Lake City, Utah. He is a specialist in the treatment of the diseased conditions resulting from the use of liquor, opium, morphine, cocaine and other narcotic drugs.

It is an established fact that the Keeley Treatment continues to be recognized by the public as the only successful treatment for the diseases before mentioned. Imitators pay high, though unwonted, tribute to the Keeley Cure in their constant recognition of it by comparison of their treatments to it, thus giving it precedence and prestige as the standard. All concede that it is the best known and most widely used of any, and so fully identified with the name of Keeley has the treatment for liquor and drug addictions become that many people assume that every establishment where such treatment is administered must be a Keeley Institute.

This is a mistake and sometimes has worked to the disadvantage of the Keeley Treatment. There is one unfailing test; no Keeley remedies are administered anywhere except in establishments authorized by The Leslie E. Keeley Company of Dwight, Illinois, and known by the uniform name of The Keeley Institute. There is no exception to this rule.

The Keeley Treatment, in four weeks' time, relieves drink patients from all craving, appetite and necessity for alcoholic stimulants. Users of opium, morphine, cocaine, laudanum and other narcotic drugs are relieved in from four to six weeks.

At all Keeley Institutes the hypodermic method of treatment is constantly used, which, according to all reputable physicians, is painless, prompt and efficient. Under the Keeley system of treatment there is no nausea or sickness of any kind, and no nauseants, emetics or other irrational methods are ever employed. The Treatment cures by restoring the system to a normal condition, and removes all craving, desire or necessity for liquor or drugs.

Street cars from all depots and steamer landings connect with the Munjoy Hill Station to The Keeley Institute, 151 Congress St., Portland, Me.

Growers and Dealers in Apples.

What is the matter with our business? There is something wrong. Who gets the profits?

Farmers aught to be getting rich with butter and eggs at 30 to 40 cents; apples $1.50 to $2.00 per barrel and other lines up in proportion.

Did you ever figure up the amount you sold in a single year?

If so you felt pretty rich until you figured the other side and found out how much you had paid out and then you figured how to cut down expenses and wondered if you would be able to pay out as much next year.

Some times when you got stung you did like a horse when bit by a fellow he couldn't see, he bit the fellow nearest to him, and he wasn't to blame at all.

You are an apple grower and you have a line that so far, has paid you a good profit above all charges however exhorbitant.

But are you sure there is no man camping on our trail, getting a little more of our profit each year and by and by he will get the profit and we the work. Of course they won't take it all at once or put it so high that we stop doing business. They are too sharp to kill outright the goose that lays the golden egg.

It is my object to point out this fellow and show just what is being done.

I will make this assertion and submit the proofs and if any man can show proofs to the contrary I demand them.

The men who ship apples to foreign markets are loosing $1,000,000.00 upon excessive freight rates on the steamship lines across the Atlantic.

To get an idea of what a fare freight rate would be let us examine the rates in 1910.

Two years ago it cost:
16c to ship 160 pounds of cotton.
11½c to ship 160 pounds of flour.
8c to ship 160 pounds of grain.
17c to ship 160 pounds of hay.
An average of $13 05 per 160 barre's.
To day we are paying $63.57 freight on 160 barrels of apples.

Excess of apples over the other comodities .50 52-100 on every barrel. This season there will go from American ports practically 3,000,000 barrels making an excess of freight paid upon apples over other comodities of $1,515,600. I only claimed $1,000,000.

I have ample proof that we are loosing more than 50 cents upon every barrel of apples that we export.

The main reason that apples have always been assessed the highest rate of freight is that the freight schedules are arranged with the idea of the way to get the most feathers with the least squarking.

In reality it is due to the fact that we neglect to attend to one of the essential points of our business, which is to see that we are not roped by excessive freight rates.

You will see that two years ago we were paying over four times as much freight upon apples as the average of flour, grain, hay and cotton.

This was not enough to suit, they thought we would stand more.

There came rumor that the rate was to go to 72¾ cents per barrel, but it finally settled down to an advance of 6 cents per barrel, making it .63 57c.

Let us see what has happened to other lines. The average advance has been nearly 100 per cent.

In 1910 the first-class ships that took their regular cargoes of 10,000 tons of these American goods charged freight to the amount of $30,073 00. In 1912 the same cargo pays $57,813.00, the increase of charges during the past two years being $27,740.00.

A cargo of similar products would be shipped from English ports here for $31,710.00. Carrying a cargo of English goods here $26,103.00 less than they would carry a similar cargo of American goods on the return trip.

Let us see what those increases amount to in a single year. If there was only one cargo a day (which would be below the actual amount) leaving our Atlantic ports it would amount to $10,125,100.00. The same amount would be brought here for $9,527,595.00 less.

How does this happen? Who is doing it?

A few years ago there was a stir in financial circles. Some American had got control of some of the English steamship lines.

This proved to be the man that had engaged H. H. Harriman in a financial battle over a few railroad lines on this side of the water with such vehemence that it shook some of the high financial institutions in England until they were willing to settle in the closet and say nothing. It was J. P. Morgan.

Would there be a rate war? Morgan don't do business that way.

The result was the Steamship Trust and the steady advance in rates. Every line advances the rate the same day.

A year ago the U. S. Government started a suit against them under the Sherman Law. Nothing has been heard of it since.

Let us figure a little and leave broad margins for all uncertainties. Let us assume that we should pay double the freight upon apples that the steamship people found it profitable to carry similar freight for, make it 26c per barrel. Then suppose we spend 5c per barrel fighting for our rights, then we will drop 2 57c by the way, and suppose that the entire overcharge is 30c per barrel. There has been shipped from West Paris this season probably 30,000 barrels of apples.

This means that this fellow has got $9,000.00 that belongs to us. Are we going to let him continue to take it?

Shall we get another advance? We are sure to unless something is done to stop it.

Can we put a stop to this? We surely can if we take hold of the problem like men.

This J. P. Morgan is the same man that known as the Morgan-Guggenheim Syndicate the uncounted millions of wealth in the coal fields of Alaska were to be delivered to them by President Taft's good Secretary Ballinger. Two humble subordinates, Pinchot and Glavis, objected. President Taft removed them for insubordination, but the public is aroused and an investigation started. This investigation was before a committee, the majority of whom stood for the same things that Morgan, Guggenheim, Ballinger and Taft stand for. Lewis D. Brandiels, the attorney for Glavis and Pinchot, knew before the hearing just how the committee would stand. I read an article by one of those muckraking magazine writers predicting the report of the committee, both the majority and minority reports.

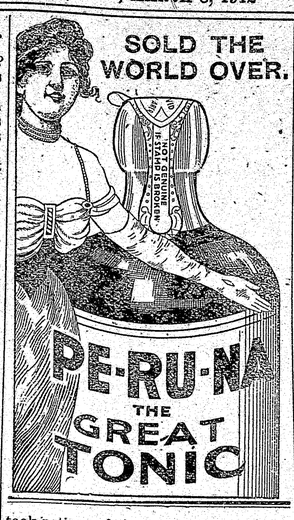

This great committee labored for months and brought forth the reports just as prophesied before the hearing. But Mr. Brandiels while apparently speaking to the committee was really speaking to the people. The people took notice and the coal lands are saved. Why? Because there is no man that stands so much in fear as the corrupt politician when the people really go after him.

This fellow that is camping on our trail is a Trust, fostered, protected and existing solely by the assistance and permission of the men we elect.

Will we stand back like imbecile degenerates, like whipped pups and see this condition continue? Or will we like men of brains and action worthy of the name of American citizens see to it that these matters are rectified?

OTISFIELD.

Mrs. Annie Wight Nutting.

Annie, wife of Gilman Nutting, passed away Feb. 2d, aged 67 years. She had been in failing health over a year but two months previous to her death she was taken very sick and was a great sufferer during her last sickness. All medical aid failed to restore her to health again. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, always ready to help those in trouble. She was kindly cared for by her son Clinton and his wife during her sickness. She will be sadly missed by her family and a large circle of friends.

She leaves a husband and four children, three sons and one daughter, Nathan W. of Boston, Maurice H. of South Norwalk, Conn., and Clinton E. and Josie B. of Otisfield. She was a member of Otisfield Grange. The funeral was at her late residence, Feb. 6th, conducted by Rev. Messrs. Wilmot and Lord of Portland, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. Helen Mitchell sang one piece, "No Burdens Yonder." The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

Let the poor people who have shivered this winter and wished they were in almost any state but Maine take comfort from these words. "A letter received from friends in the West, states that for six weeks the thermometer hardly went above zero and the climax has been reached by a blizzard that blocked trains and piled up drifts twenty feet deep." It is true we have cold winters and big storms here in Maine but it is not all sunshine and honey in any of the other states and we average up for the year with as good weather as the best of them. Let us be a little more fair with Maine weather.

Cause for Alarm.

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all in Norway who suffer from any stomach derangement, indigestion, or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They give very prompt relief, aiding to neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, to regulate the bowels, and thus to promote perfect nutrition, and eradicate all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. F. P. Stone, 143 Main Street, Norway. 10

Headaches and Their Treatment.

In treating a headache, there is one safe rule to follow:—Never use any medicine containing acetanilid or similar coal-tar derivatives without the advice of your physician. They may give temporary relief, but they almost never reach the cause of the trouble and are likely to weaken the heart. The most common form of headache, frequently called sick headache, arising from a disordered stomach, may be avoided by care in the choice of food. Shun pastry, candy and rich food, take time to eat, chew your food thoroughly and keep your bowels in good condition by using one-half to one teaspoonful of L. F. Atwood's Medicine after each meal. This old reliable remedy has been a perfect blessing to thousands for sixty years. Get a bottle today, and prove it for yourself. Any dealer has it for thirty-five cents, or we mail a free sample on request. L. F. Medicine Co., Portland, Me.

WEST PARIS.

Mrs. Gertrude Stewart returned from the C. M. G. hospital last Wednesday.

Mrs. F. H. Hill visited her mother and brother, Ned Packard, in Greenwood, last week.

Mrs. W. S. Austin of South Paris spent the day, Tuesday, with her sister, Mrs. S. T. White.

Mrs. I. L. Bowker was up from Portland to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tuell, a few days last week.

The West Paris Cemetery Association will hold their annual meeting, Friday evening, March 8, at 7.30, in Centennial hall.

Roscoe Tuell has a flock of thirteen Rhode Island Red pullets that began to lay, Oct. 10, and since that time have produced 890 eggs or 74 16 dozen, which have been sold for $26 48, making over $2.00 from each pullet.

George Morton, agent of the Little giant Lighting System, has installed two street lights, one on the corner of Main and Maple streets and one beyond the Universalist church, opposite C. F. Barden's. This makes a good beginning towards a street-light system for our village. Two or three more would light up in pretty good shape.

The last quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held here at the church, Thursday evening, March 14th. District Superintendent Holmes of Lewiston will be present. It is his last year as district superintendent, therefore the last time the people here will have a chance to meet him in his present relation.

The lecture to be given by Rev. C. H. Young, Ph. B., on "The Passing of the Indian," will be given at the F. B. church, Tuesday evening, March 12th, at 7.45. This lecture will be illustrated by stereoptican views and motion pictures, showing Indians in their camp life, fire dances, etc., and personal reminiscences and adventures of the lecturer as he came in touch with the Red Men of the plains during the time he was a cow boy in the West.

Edwin R. Berry has kept account of two flocks of his Barred Plymouth Rock pullets, which are as follows:—The first flock of 31, hatched April 1st, began to lay Aug. 20th, have produced, to Mar. 1st, 208 eggs or 173⅓ dozen. The second flock of 18, hatched June 1st, began to lay Nov. 28th, have produced, to March 1st, 756 eggs or 63 dozen. Total number produced by both flocks is 2,838 eggs or 263½ dozen. These pullets have been kept in open front houses, with mercury running to ten degrees below zero at times. The above records are pretty good and we would like to hear from others.

Pomona Grange met here, Tuesday, with a big delegation from all the neighboring Granges. The fifth degree was conferred upon three candidates and two were admitted by demit cards during the forenoon session. A bountiful dinner was served in the dining hall. The afternoon program consisted of several selections by the West Paris Grange double mixed quartette, which received many compliments. Two or three readings were given by Mrs. J. F. Wood, which were encored as also a duet by Mrs. Wood and Dana Grover and a solo by Mrs. Orrie Bird were encored. F. L. Wyman gave a five minute talk on "What I am going to do in my orchard this spring." Then there was a discussion on the question as to whether the present school system was not too hard for the children and that it might be better to have less weeks of school per year and put the work into a five year course instead of four. This was the minority question discussed by the recent State Grange Superintendent Knight. Charles Richardson, superintendent of Greenwood, John Roberts of Norway and others talked on this subject. The meeting altogether was a most enjoyable and profitable one.

OXFORD.

William Faunce is quite sick.

Henry Marr, who has been confined to the house for some time, is again able to be out.

The severe storm which came Feb. 27, drifted badly, making the roads almost impassable.

Mrs. Quimby Millett, who has been to the C. M. G. Hospital, is better, but owing to the bad traveling she was not able to come home as soon as expected.

Easter will be observed by a concert in the Congregational church and a committee has been appointed to make necessary preparations.

The Women's Missionary Society held a very interesting meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. G. B. Turner. The subject was, "Interdenominational Day of Prayer."

By the will of the late Rebecca Baker, one hundred dollars was left the Riverside Cemetery, and one-third of the remainder of her property to the Congregational church in Oxford and by the will of Mrs. S. E. King, five hundred dollars each for the before mentioned church and Welchville church and the remainder of property with the exception of $1000 to the Freeland Holmes Library.

Hattie Andrews is intending to spend the week-end with Mrs. Cash.

The T. A. Roberts Corps gave three sick Veterans a post card shower last week.

Arthur Hanscome has moved from the Cy Linnell house on Pleasant street to the Cy Hayes rent on Main street.

The Boy Scouts walked up to Paris, Saturday, March 2d. They must have had a good time up there to compensate for the tramp on a day like Saturday.

Margaret Walker came home Thursday, Feb. 29th. She had to be brought on a cot bed. She stood the journey as well as could be expected for one so sick. She has good courage.

Rev. Clarence Brown preached a grand sermon, Sunday, on the power of God, Text Eph. 1:19: "And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the workings of his mighty power." Rev. Mr. Eaton led the meeting, Sunday night, for Rev. Mr. Brown.

The T. A. Roberts W. R. C. had a good turnout, Saturday afternoon. They were expecting the Post in so had refreshments of cake and ice cream, but none of the Soldiers came. Some of the veterans were sick and the rest were getting ready for town meeting, but the Corps had a fine time even if they were disappointed.

DENMARK.

The town raised $500 for the soldiers' monument, and voted to accept the care of $300 left by the late Wm. Holt to care for the family burying ground. John A. Brackett, a native of this town, was at the meeting and evinced a marked interest in behalf of the soldiers' monument, in becoming personally responsible. His home has been for years in Lawrence, Mass. The Rebekah ladies furnished a splendid dinner.

BRYANT POND.

Event of the Season.

The 3d annual millitary concert, drill and ball under the auspices of Mt. Christopher, No. 41, Uniform Rank—Knights of Pythias, was held in Dudley Opera House, Bryant Pond, on Monday evening, March 4th. It was a brilliant affair and long to be remembered by those who were present. The concert was given by Hobbs' Premier Orchestra of Lewiston, which is one of the finest in the state.

At the close of the concert Mt. Christopher Co. came on the floor and gave a drill. Their work was fine and highly appreciated. Officers were as follows:—Captain, C. E. Cole; First Lieut., Walter Gordan; Second Lieut., Harry Noyes. At the close of the drill the march was formed with uniformed Sir Knights at the head. The glittering swords made a striking contrast to the beautifully decorated hall, with its streamers of red, white and blue, extending from all four corners of the hall, with a background of flags.

The grand march was formed at 9.30, Captain Clarence E. Cole and Lona Noble of Norway, leading, followed by about eighty couples. After an order of about sixteen dances the merry party broke up. In fact it was a grand success, and we all wish Mt. Christopher Co., No. 41, an even greater success in 1913.

LOCKE'S MILLS.

There are a few cases of chicken pox in town.

Mrs. Ira Swan has gone to care for a sick relative.

Ellery C. Parks of Bethel was in town, recently on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph George are entertaining company from away.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stowell are visiting in Norway for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herrick spent Sunday in Bethel, with relatives.

Mrs. W. E. Chase of Dixfield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Brown.

Alice Brown is gaining from her serious operation of appendicitis, a week ago.

Aaron Lufkin and George Thurston of Rumford called at C. R. Bartlett's one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wiley, who have been in Wakefield, Mass., for a few months have returned to their home, here.

WEST PARIS.

Mrs. Gertrude Stewart returned from the C. M. G. hospital last Wednesday.

Mrs. F. H. Hill visited her mother and brother, Ned Packard, in Greenwood, last week.

Mrs. W. S. Austin of South Paris spent the day, Tuesday, with her sister, Mrs. S. T. White.

Mrs. I. L. Bowker was up from Portland to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tuell, a few days last week.

The West Paris Cemetery Association will hold their annual meeting, Friday evening, March 8, at 7.30, in Centennial hall.

Roscoe Tuell has a flock of thirteen Rhode Island Red pullets that began to lay, Oct. 10, and since that time have produced 890 eggs or 74 1 6 dozen, which have been sold for $26 48, making over $2.00 from each pullet.

George Morton, agent of the Little giant Lighting System, has installed two street lights, one on the corner of Main and Maple streets and one beyond the Universalist church, opposite C. F. Barden's. This makes a good beginning towards a street-light system for our village. Two or three more would light up in pretty good shape.

The last quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held here at the church, Thursday evening, March 14th. District Superintendent Holmes of Lewiston will be present. It is his last year as district superintendent, therefore the last time the people here will have a chance to meet him in his present relation.

The lecture to be given by Rev. C. H. Young, Ph. B., on "The Passing of the Indian," will be given at the F. B. church, Tuesday evening, March 12th, at 7.45. This lecture will be illustrated by stereoptican views and motion pictures, showing Indians in their camp life, fire dances, etc., and personal reminiscences and adventures of the lecturer as he came in touch with the Red Men of the plains during the time he was a cow boy in the West.

Edwin R. Berry has kept account of two flocks of his Barred Plymouth Rock pullets, which are as follows:—The first flock of 31, hatched April 1st, began to lay Aug. 20th, have produced, to Mar. 1st, 208 eggs or 173⅓ dozen. The second flock of 18, hatched June 1st, began to lay Nov. 28th, have produced, to March 1st, 756 eggs or 63 dozen. Total number produced by both flocks is 2,888 eggs or 268⅓ dozen. These pullets have been kept in open front houses, with mercury running to ten degrees below zero at times. The above records are pretty good and we would like to hear from others.

Pomona Grange met here, Tuesday, with a big delegation from all the neighboring Granges. The fifth degree was conferred upon three candidates and two were admitted by demit cards during the forenoon session. A bountiful dinner was served in the dining hall. The afternoon program consisted of several selections by the West Paris Grange double mixed quartette, which received many compliments. Two or three readings were given by Mrs. J. F. Wood, which were encored as also a duet by Mrs. Wood and Dana Grover and a solo by Mrs. Orrie Bird were encored. F. L. Then there was a discussion on the question as to whether the present school system was not too hard for the children and that it might be better to have less weeks of school per year and put the work into a five year course instead of four. This was the minority question discussed by the recent State Grange Superintendent Knight. Charles Richardson, superintendent of Greenwood, John Roberts of Norway and others talked on this subject. The meeting altogether was a most enjoyable and profitable one.
